Hi Sharon and Molly,

Please let me know if you are interested in and available for attending this call. Below is all the information we have about the project so far.

"My name is Andrew Bremner and I manage an energy & alternatives investment portfolio for a firm called JB Energy Partners out of Bakersfield, California (~$350M assets under management). We are working hard on a couple of really great carbon capture & storage projects (Class VI permitting), and we are hoping to preview one of them for your team in the near future. We have previewed the project for CARB and CalGEM and have received great feedback (and encouragement to proceed)."

Thanks,
Calvin
